Package notes

• Only recorded facts were used. No missing price was replaced with zero and no missing date was invented.

• Purchase totals and current estimates are separate. Currencies are never added together or converted.

• Loaned units are still owned. Borrower names, loan notes, purchase notes and document notes are excluded from this package.

• Photos are the stored household photo derivatives; exact uploaded photo originals have already been normalized by Housetory.

• Original supporting document bytes are only claimed when the attachment bundle includes the original role. Normalized or cleaned scan PDFs are labelled as such in the bundle manifest.

• This is supporting documentation, not an insurance policy, valuation, claim or guarantee of coverage.
